Website Terms and Conditions

Unity Elite, L.L.C. | Effective date: October 13, 2026

1. Acceptance

These Terms govern access to and use of https://www.unity-elite.com, operated by Unity Elite, L.L.C. ("Unity Elite," "we," "us," or "our"). By using the website, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, do not use the website.

These Terms govern website use only. A separate signed proposal, statement of work, or client services agreement may govern consulting engagements and will control over these Terms if the documents conflict regarding that engagement.

2. Services and Information

Unity Elite provides creative operations consulting and related advisory services, which may include assessments, audits, workflow and process reviews, systems recommendations, strategic roadmaps, and operational guidance.

Website content is general information, not legal, tax, accounting, financial, or other regulated professional advice. You are responsible for evaluating recommendations and deciding whether and how to implement them.

Results depend on factors including your team, resources, decisions, implementation, third-party platforms, and market conditions. We do not guarantee particular business, revenue, lead-generation, marketing, or operational results.

3. Permitted Use

You may use the website for lawful purposes. You must not disrupt or compromise the website, bypass security controls, introduce malicious code, interfere with other users, harvest information unlawfully, impersonate another person, or use the website to violate another party's rights.

4. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, website text, branding, graphics, original materials, and other content are owned by or licensed to Unity Elite and protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

You may view and use website content for personal or internal business evaluation. You may not reproduce, republish, distribute, sell, create derivative works from, or commercially exploit it without prior written permission, except as applicable law permits.

Client deliverables, ownership, licenses, confidentiality, and use of pre-existing frameworks should be addressed in the applicable client services agreement.

5. Submissions and Feedback

If you submit information through an assessment, form, email, booking tool, or other channel, you confirm you are authorized to submit it and, to the best of your knowledge, it is accurate and lawful to share.

You retain rights you hold in materials you submit. You authorize Unity Elite to use submissions as reasonably necessary to respond to your inquiry, assess your stated business needs, communicate with you, provide requested services, maintain records, protect the website, and carry out purposes disclosed at collection or in the Privacy Policy. This does not grant Unity Elite an unrestricted right to publish or sell submissions.

Do not submit confidential, sensitive, or third-party information unless necessary and you have authority to share it. Confidentiality obligations for paid work should be documented separately.

6. Third-Party Services

The website may link to or integrate third-party websites and services. We do not control or guarantee their availability, security, content, or practices. Their separate terms and privacy policies may apply.

7. Bookings, Fees, Payments, and Cancellations

Applicable service scope, fees, payment schedules, deposits, cancellations, rescheduling, refunds, and deliverable terms will be stated in the relevant proposal, checkout flow, booking confirmation, or client services agreement. Contact us before purchasing if those terms are not clear. Nothing here overrides mandatory rights under applicable law.

8. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the website and content are provided "as is" and "as available," without express, implied, or statutory warranties, including merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title, or non-infringement.

We do not warrant that the website will be uninterrupted, error-free, secure, or free of harmful components, or that every statement will remain current or complete.

9. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Unity Elite will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages, or for loss of profits, revenue, business opportunities, goodwill, data, or anticipated savings arising from website use or inability to use it.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Unity Elite's total liability arising out of or relating to the website or these Terms will not exceed the greater of (a) the amount you paid directly to Unity Elite for website-related services during the twelve months before the event giving rise to the claim, or (b) US $100. This limitation does not apply where prohibited by law and does not exclude liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

These website limitations do not replace or modify any separate liability provisions in a signed client services agreement.

10. Indemnification

To the extent permitted by law, you are responsible for losses and reasonable costs arising from your unlawful use of the website, material violation of these Terms, or infringement of another party's rights. This does not apply to the extent a claim is caused by Unity Elite's own conduct or where indemnification is prohibited by law.

11. Changes or Suspension

We may modify, suspend, or discontinue any part of the website at any time. We may restrict access when reasonably necessary to protect the website, users, or our rights, or to address misuse.

12. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by New Jersey law, without regard to conflict-of-law principles, except where applicable law requires otherwise. Disputes will be handled in a court with appropriate jurisdiction, subject to mandatory protections and non-waivable rights.

13. Updates and Contact
